

Tung Wah Group of Hospitals Nickon Kindergarten

Environmental Policy

- Committed to cultivating students to become green citizens in the future.
- Through a variety of environmental education courses and activities, students can appreciate nature and pay attention to environmental protection.
- Build a beautiful green campus where students can learn and grow in an ideal environment.
- Practice green living.
- With sound environmental management, we ensure that school members cherish resources and demonstrate sustainable future development.

